4. Aggrieved by the said punishment Smt Bilquis Rehana, Superintendent, Special Prison for Women, Hyderabad, has filed appeal petition before the Government, stating that since long time there was no parole release at State Jail for Women, Rajahmundry, and as such the Govt.Memo was treated as Parole Sanction Order, and the mistake was done due to oversight and not intentionally, and her date of retirement is on 31-03-2011. Therefore, these two increments i.e., for the year 2009 and 2010 will not be accrued to her pay at the time of retirement and that will cause irreparable financial loss in her pension and retirement benefits as well as in revised pay fixations, and as such requested to set aside the order of penalty.

5. Government, after careful examination of the appeal petition filed by Smt Bilquis Rehana, Superintendent, Special Prison for Women, Hyderabad, and after verifying the relevant records relating to the case, have taken the circumstances adduced in the appeal petition of the appellant into consideration and also the fact that she is going to retire on 31-03-2011, and as such the Government has taken a lenient view and decided to set aside the penalty imposed against the individual.
